

WVPA Editorial Contest

EDITORIAL RULES

1. The WVPA Newspaper Contest's Editorial Competition is limited to West Virginia newspapers of general interest circulation and qualified associate member newspapers. Only WVPA members in good standing are eligible. Failure to comply with contest rules will result in automatic disqualification of entries.
2. Awards will be presented during the WVPA's annual Convention
3. Newspapers will compete in the contest against other newspapers in their circulation division:

Division I: Dailies over 16,001 and over

Division II: Dailies 16,000 and under

Division III: Weeklies 4,001 and over

Division IV: Weeklies 4,000 and under

4. Circulation divisions will be based on the daily circulation number used when calculating WVPA annual dues. Dailies will compete against dailies and weeklies will compete against weeklies. Newspapers can opt to enter a larger circulation division. All a newspaper's entries, in both advertising and editorial, must be entered into the same circulation division. Editors and Advertising Directors should coordinate the entry division.
5. In the case of morning and afternoon newspapers in the same city and under common ownership or in joint operating agreements, combined circulation determines the division and the advertising entries are considered the product of both newspapers.
6. Fee: $6 per entry; must accompany entry. Limit on entries: seven (7) for any one category.
7. Entries using a URL will need to include a login and password, if the website has a pay-wall. Include the login and password and provide it in the explanation box for each URL entry. All entries, including special sections, should be loaded as PDF files.
Note: If the rare entry is too large to upload, mail it to WVPA Office, 3422 Pennsylvania Ave., Charleston, W.Va. 25302. The newspaper is still responsible for creating an entry on the contest site. Mailed entries should include the newspaper name, Circulation division, Advertising or Editorial and the Category the entry was submitted into.
8. Contest Period: Material published from Jan. 1, 2018, through Dec. 31, 2018.
9. A newspaper may compete in as many categories as desired. The same individual entry CANNOT be submitted to more than one category. For example, the same piece may not be entered in Best Feature Story and Best Written News Story. However, any story, feature article, editorial, etc. may be entered in the appropriate category, even if it's contained in entries for Best Single Issue or Best Special Section. Judges may declare no contest if there are insufficient entries in a category.

10. Syndicated columns are not eligible for individual awards but maybe included as part of an entry for Best Single Issue or Best Special Section.
11. Awards will be made by first, second, and third place. Honorable mentions may be awarded at the judge's discretion.
12. Winners of the General Excellence Award will be determined by compiling points received for first-, second-, and third-place awards won in all other categories. (First-place awards are worth three points; second-place, two points; third-place, one point.) No points will be given for Honorable Mention, Photo of the Year or Advertisement of the Year. Announcement of winners will be made at the annual WVPA convention, Aug. 1-3, 2019 at Lakeview Resort in Morgantown.
13. It's the hope of the contest committee that there will be increased participation on the part of member newspapers. To encourage this, the committee urges that entries for writing and photography awards be on an individual rather than just a newspaper basis. The individual winners of writing and photography awards will be listed on plaques and certificates along with the name of the newspaper employing them. When there is more than one winner for first place, one plaque will be awarded to the newspaper listing all the names. Certificates will be issued to each person sharing in a first-place award. Try to avoid crediting "staff", if possible.
14. The complete competition shall be under the supervision of the WVPA office. Decisions of the judges selected by WVPA must be regarded as final. The West Virginia Press Association Board of Directors retains all rights and privileges in the conducting of the competition, including cancellation for cause.
