Dear Media Program Advisers and Editors:

The time is here again to select and submit your entries for the Illinois College Press Association Contest. Enclosed you'll find the contest rules, categories and directions for online submission. Please read the materials carefully, and if you have any questions, please let me know.

We are using the services of the Illinois Press Association's contest coordinating website, ACES. All entries will be submitted in electronic format to the website listed in the attached materials. Please follow the enclosed step-by-step instructions for how to submit your materials to the site.

Entries must be received/time stamped no later than 11:59 p.m., Thu. Dec. 15, 2022. Categories will be judged by professional journalists across Illinois and other parts of the country. For most categories, media programs compete in divisions determined by undergraduate enrollment, except for nine categories that are open to all schools.

All awards, including first, second and third places and honorable mentions, will be announced at the annual ICPA convention, February 17-18, 2023, in Chicago.

If your news organization is not currently affiliated with the ICPA or your membership has lapsed, now is the time to renew. Those forms will accompany these materials. To enter the contest, your publication(s) needs to be an active ICPA member.

Thanks for your participation!

2022 ICPA Contest Rules and Instructions

Member news organizations and students on staff during the contest period are eligible to enter. While a news organization must be an active member of the Illinois College Press Association to enter the contest, there are no entry fees.

All entries must have been published between Dec. 1, 2021, and Nov. 30, 2022. Entries must be submitted through the ACES contest system. Directions attached.

Questions can be submitted to:

Stacia Campbell, Northwestern University, ICPA 2nd Vice President

icpa@newspapercontest.com OR s-campbell@northwestern.edu

Deadline for submitting entries: Thursday, December 15, 2022, at 11:59 p.m.

- General info about ACES follows. Improperly prepared or late entries will be disqualified.
- We reserve the right to cancel a category if there is a lack of entries.
- All entries must be the work of a student member of a student news organization staff that is an active member of the Illinois College Press Association.
- Please limit the number of students listed for awards. Cite the person whose work is most reflected for each entry. A second person may be named if they contributed significantly to the overall story, design, etc. Do not list every editorial board member for editorials; instead, name the person who wrote the editorial or “staff.” Entries with three or more entrant names will be credited to “staff.”
- Please only enter your best work, not just something in every category. Judges get very frustrated when they have to evaluate dozens of entries of mediocre work only entered because newspapers feel they should enter every category, no matter the quality of the entries.
- EACH PUBLICATION MAY HAVE MULTIPLE PEOPLE SUBMITTING ON ITS BEHALF, BUT YOU MUST COORDINATE ON YOUR END.

Important Changes to the 2022 Contest To Note

- General Excellence is broken down into print and website categories. The Online News Site category has been eliminated as it duplicated the General Excellence Website category.
- The Sweepstakes Award will continue.
- Best Podcast is divided into different content types — news, entertainment/culture and sports. Due to the number of expected entries, judges are asked to listen to a minimum of 10 minutes for each entry.
- New category Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Coverage added, see note below for entry details.

Category Notes

- Any member media program may submit entries for the Open competition. For all other categories, media programs compete in divisions determined by undergraduate enrollment.
- Schools may submit two entries per category, unless otherwise noted. Submit only entries of high quality that merit attention. Screenshots (.pdfs) of work from the member media program's website are allowed in the appropriate categories.
- For Photos, a photo published only online may be entered, even if it was not published in print.
- For Best Sports News Story, please note this does not include game stories. There is a separate Best Sports Game Story category.
- For Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Coverage: Eligible coverage will include but not be limited to race, religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability and other differences. Judges will consider depth of coverage of the overall entry. An entry will consist of up to three pieces from one organization. Pieces do not have to be by the same person. May or may not be a series. One entry per organization. Judges will review URLs for web or digital content and PDFs for print.
- For Sweepstakes, there is no entry to submit as winners are determined by point totals.
- Note on file names: please include a headline or slug & abbreviated publication name when naming files to help judges identify entries. Example: baseball-nyt.pdf is better than page1.pdf or untitled1.jpg.
