

2019 NCPA AD CONTEST

RULES

- Although you may have participated in the past, all newspapers must re-register on the contest site at <http://newspapercontest.com/>. Use the SEC code 'ncpress'. After you register, look for an email. Once you respond to the email, you'll be able to login to the contest site.
- The deadline for all entries and payments is 11:59 p.m. Nov 14, 2019. Upload entries at <http://newspapercontest.com/>
- Each ad can only be submitted in one contest category. If the same entry is found in two categories it will be disqualified. The only exception to this rule is found in categories where an entry consists of multiple different ads. When an ad appears as one element within one of these composite categories, it may also be entered into another eligible category for judging individually on its own merits. Composite categories in the ad contest include:
 - Best special section
 - Best community service/signature page
 - Best advertising campaign

For questions on this rule, please call Phil Lucey at (919) 516-8013 or email phil@ncpress.com

- If the entry appeared in multiple publications, it can only be entered by one of them. Publishers have the final say over which newspaper submits an ad appearing in multiple newspapers.
- All ads must be submitted as full-page digital tear sheets unless something else is specifically called for in the category description. When multiple ads appear on a page, please use an arrow pointing to - but not on - the ad to assist the judge. Entries can be submitted as a PDF or a URL link to an entry.
- All entries must have been published between Oct. 1, 2018 and Sept. 30, 2019.
- The entry fee for each individual entry you submit is $7. Click on "Entry Billing" to view your total. Credit card payments can be made via PayPal. Checks should be made payable to the North Carolina Press Association and postmarked by the entry deadline. Mail to NCPA, 5171 Glenwood Avenue #486, Raleigh, NC 27612.

- All entries must be from newspapers or online news sites that are members in good standing as of the contest deadline of the North Carolina Press Association. Entries may not be submitted from sister publications unless they are also members of NCPA.

GENERAL INFO

ELIGIBILITY: Competition is open to all advertising department personnel of North Carolina Press Association member newspapers in good standing who were regularly employed by the newspaper at the time the entry was published.

- Agency ads are not eligible.
- General national advertising runs as part of a national schedule do not qualify for this contest.
- Some newspapers outsource production work for their advertisements. As long as an advertisement was conceived by a salesperson or creative person on staff and handled by the newspaper's staff members, it is permissible to enter advertisements where the actual production work was completed elsewhere. It is NOT permissible to enter any ad the newspaper did not originate, e.g., camera-ready art work.

No ads from niche publications may be submitted in general advertising categories. Use the niche publications category for these submissions.

YOUR DIVISION: For this contest, NCPA daily newspapers are divided into three divisions based on circulation. A current statement of ownership or audited circulation report must be on file with NCPA to verify division. Entries will not be accepted without a verified circulation report. The division for your newspaper is already in the contest website based on the most recent information NCPA has on file and cannot be changed once the contest has begun.

For non-daily newspapers, the division is calculated by multiplying the number of days of publication in a week by the listed circulation number. For example, if you publish three times per week and your daily circulation on file is 7,000 your total circulation would be 21,000.

Daily Newspaper Divisions

Division D - Under 12,500

Division E - 12,500-35,000

Division F - Over 35,000

NCPA community/specialty publications are divided into three divisions based on circulation and one online division for NCPA's online-only members. The division for your newspaper/news site is already in the contest website based on the most recent information NCPA has on file and cannot be changed once the contest has begun.

Community newspaper divisions are calculated by multiplying the number of days of publication in a week by the listed circulation number. For example, if you publish three times per week and your daily circulation on file is 7,000 your total circulation would be 21,000.

Community Newspaper Divisions:

Division A - Under 3,500

Division B - 3,500 to 10,000

Division C - Over 10,000

Online Publications: For contest purposes, online publications are defined as online-only members who do not publish a print newspaper product. Online members compete strictly against each other in a unique division, named Division O. They do not compete against print newspapers.

 SUBMIT A STATEMENT OF OWNERSHIP OR AUDITED REPORT VERIFYING TOTAL CIRCULATION VIA EMAIL TO PHIL@NCPRESS.COM**

PREPARING YOUR ENTRIES: Take a look at the various categories listed here before beginning to upload your files. Unless specifically stated for the contest category, submit entries as full-page digital tear sheets. NOTE: When there are several advertisements on one tear sheet, you must add an arrow to the page pointing directly at the ad to be judged. Make sure the arrow points at the ad, but isn't actually on the ad. Clipped files, unless requested, will be disqualified. Judges will view your entries online, so compress the file to be as small as possible.

Every entry must be uploaded to the contest website. There are no mailed categories. A PDF or link to entry can be submitted for judging.

With the exception of composite categories (see page 1, second bullet) all entries can only be submitted and judged in ONE category. Any entry submitted in more than one category will be disqualified. Any ad that has received an award in the previous year's NCPA Best Ad Contest is NOT eligible to be entered in this year's contest.

You may enter more than one ad in each category, but each ad must be different. Duplicate entries of the same ad in different categories will be disqualified.

If ads with spot color are entered into black and white categories, they will be disqualified.

A series of thematically related ads will be treated as one entry. Newspapers must upload all ads in a series or campaign together as ONE file. Double trucks and facing pages count as one entry and must be uploaded together as one file.

JUDGES AND AWARDS: Entries will be judged by newspaper advertising professionals who are members of the West Virginia Press Association. Their decisions are final. If there are fewer than five entries in a category, the judge may choose to award only first place.

Certificates will be awarded for first, second and third place winners in all categories, except for "Best of Show" winners, who will each receive a plaque. Each winning entry will receive two copies of the certificate: one for the newspaper and one for the sales representative. Additional copies may be purchased for $7 each. Awards will be presented at the 2020 Annual Convention, February 26-28, 2020, at the Raleigh Marriott Crabtree Valley.

NOTE: The credit name and entry title you enter into the contest system is what will appear on the printed certificate. Make sure the title of the ad and name of winners are correct on every entry!

Special Awards: Metro Creative Graphics will present a special award for the best balance of winners in each of the six newspaper divisions. The decision is based on the number of first, second and third place awards and is determined on a point scale basis. 5 points for 1st, 3 points for 2nd, 1 point for 3rd.

Best of Show: NCPA will award seven Best of Show awards to the best of all individual first place winners in each of the six divisions. Plaques will be presented to the winners. One "Best Overall Niche Publication" will be presented to the newspaper with the best niche publication judged from among the six newspaper division winners.

PAYING FOR ENTRIES: The fee for each uploaded entry is $7. Entries can be paid using a credit card via PayPal. If selecting to pay by check please make checks payable to the North Carolina Press Association and mail to 5171 Glenwood Avenue, #486, Raleigh, NC, 27612. Check payments must be postmarked by Nov 14, 2019

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What file formats are accepted for uploading? The contest system accepts many file formats. However, uploading PDF or JPEG files or url links ensures our judges will be able to view your entries.

How can I make my PDFs smaller? Most newspaper PDFs include high resolution grayscale or CMYK images for printing. However, PDF contest entries will be viewed and judged on a computer monitor, which displays at low resolution (72-96 dpi) in RGB color. Changes in resolution and color mode of images are the most effective ways to reduce file size without sacrificing quality.

In PDFs, text is always clear regardless of resolution. Resolution only relates to photos and rasterized graphics. Reducing resolution by half reduces image file size by 75 percent. The recommended maximum resolution of 96 dpi can be enforced by Distiller settings.

Color Mode: Converting from CMYK to RGB color will reduce image file size by another 25 percent. This color conversion can again be enforced by Distiller settings.

If you reduce image resolution and/or convert color mode in your entry PDFs with a PDF editor (Enfocus, Pitstop or Quite A Box of Tricks) or use the native profiling/editing tools in Acrobat 6 or later, you will NOT gain the expected reduction in file size unless you redistill the PDF afterward.

What is the most efficient way to collect entry files? Extract entry-related pages from any multi-page PDFs or delete non-entry pages. Give each resulting file a clearly descriptive name. Combine into a single PDF file the pages that comprise each entry. See below for instructions on extracting/combining PDFs.

Once you've created all your entry PDFs, redistill each one as explained above to reduce it to the smallest practical size. It is not productive to try to reduce sizes of individual files before combining them into complete entries. Like all changes, combining pages can increase overall file size.

How do I extract pages from full-issue or full-section PDFs? Open the PDF file in Acrobat and choose "Extract Pages..." from the Document menu. This will allow you to save individual or sequential pages in separate files anywhere on your computer.

How do I combine PDFs into a single file? Open the PDF that you want to appear first in the entry. Choose "Save As..." from the File menu and give it the name of the final entry. Choose "Insert Pages..." from the Document menu, choose the file that you want to appear next in the entry, then specify where that file should be inserted. When all insertions have been made, save and close the PDF. You'll need to redistill the final PDFs.

How will NCPA prevent fraud? We prefer to trust our member publishers not to submit embellished or edited entries. However, NCPA members have pointed out that electronic contest entries will not necessarily represent published pages because they can be changed before submission. It is true that ads and articles can be re-edited, photos can be retouched or replaced, and page layouts can be changed. However, major deception probably would be noticed, if only because winning PDFs will be available to the public and NCPA members on the NCPA website. If fraud is suspected with any entries, a full investigation will follow.
